

PREACH ABOUT LOVE WITH LOVE

Ephesians 4:11-15

Greek is one of the richest of all _____. Whereas English has only _____ word to express all kinds of love, Greek has as many as _____.
One means love _____ the sexes. Another is used to convey the thought of _____ affection. The third denotes love of true _____. The fourth and the most commonly used word for "love" in the _____ is "agape," appearing more than _____ times. It is best defined by the _____ in Matthew 5:43-48. He was teaching every person to "love one another" as _____ loves.

God loves _____; He loves us all. He made us in His _____ (Genesis 1:26), meaning that unlike the other creatures God made, there is a _____ in man. We are God's _____ (Acts 17:29). That doesn't mean He _____ of all human behavior, neither does it mean we'll all be _____. God knows the difference between "saints" and "sinners," and He will _____ us all (1 Corinthians 4:1-4) through his _____ Jesus Christ (Acts 17:31).

God loves the _____ (John 3:16; Matthew 9:36). To be like God, _____ must love the lost.

It is useless; it is hypocrisy to preach or profess "love" and not _____ it. Obedience is the _____ of your love (John 14:15; Luke 6:46-49). It is obvious that "love" is not merely an _____; it is more; it is an _____.

Biblical admonitions to Christians to love one _____ are almost innumerable.

Hebrews 13:1 "Let brotherly love _____."

Romans 12:9-10 "Owe no one _____ except to love one another . . ."

Galatians 5:13-15 "For you, brethren, have been called to liberty, only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the _____, but through love _____ one another. . ."

Galatians 5:22 "But the _____ of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." Love _____ the list of characteristics produced by the Spirit.

If I didn't try to persuade you to _____ a life-threatening practice, could I persuade you that I _____ you?

I love people too much to sit quietly by and know people are going to be eternally _____ because they didn't know the Lord's way of being _____.

Some believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God and they've been told "that's _____."

The truth is that Jesus, Himself, said: "Unless you _____ you will . . . perish (Luke 13:3).

Some in New Testament days believed in Him, but they would not say so _____, because they would suffer the loss of friends in their former religion (John 12:42).

Scripture says, "If you _____ with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your _____ that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved" (Romans 10:9).

In Mark 16:16 Jesus said, "He who believes and is _____ will be saved."

I must tell you that baptism is "for the remission of _____" (Acts 2:38) – or to "wash away your sins" (Acts 22:16) in the _____ of Jesus Christ (Revelation 1:5).