

God Is God
Romans 1:18-23

Since idols are actually just a figment of one's imagination, they have no revelation or moral teaching to _____ their followers. They cannot speak, hear, or see, and cannot help in times of _____. Humans can tell the idol their beliefs rather than _____ to the moral law of the true God of heaven. When men reject God or ignore God, there is still within their hearts the desire to _____ something. How we view God and how we _____ to God is one of the most important factors in how our lives go.

Romans 1:18-20 The God of heaven hasn't hidden Himself but has revealed His power and attributes through His _____. Only the infinite God who does not dwell in _____ made with hands could have created this universe. Rather than think we can construct a god to worship as we _____, we would be far greater served to seek after the only true God (1 Thessalonians 1:9). When men _____ the true God, they also lose what is true and good in their lives and they replace it with an empty deception. The Bible says about idolaters, "they are without _____" (Romans 1:20).

Read Romans 1:24-25 When people say no to the God who created them, they _____ Him with their own desires or lusts, and they hurt themselves spiritually and morally. Every law of God is for our good; and when you say no to God it _____ hurts those who reject Him.

Read Romans 1:28-32 God and morality are unalterably linked together; and the further that you get away from God, the _____ your life and our society becomes. It is only when we _____ take it to heart that God made us and allow His authority to work in our lives, and to control our behavior, and our destiny, that we see the need to _____ ourselves and to live as God wills. Men who worship idols live by their own _____. Those who serve the God of heaven have His revealed Word, the _____, which He has given to guide man, you and me, to the ways of peace and love.

"What is God like?" The Bible gives us a good _____.

John 1:17-18 We know what God the Father is like by _____ at Jesus Christ, His Son. We _____ about His character, His power, His love, and His goodness every time we _____ at Jesus.

John 14:7-9 The more we come to _____ Jesus, the more we know what God is like. God is _____ and can be seen in a form that we can understand, in Jesus Christ. We are _____ to know that our God is real and can be loved.

Philippians 2:5-8 We know that God is loving and compassionate, that He is willing to _____ Himself for our sake, because He loves us so very much, and every day we should give _____ to Him.

Philippians 2:9-11 Jesus died for you, but God has given Him a place of _____ over you and me. Love and forgiveness are ours, but we must _____ ourselves before God and be obedient to His will.

Today, people still worship _____ of their own making. Some worship money, some worship their flesh, some worship fame, and some devote their lives to their job or their hobby. Jesus said, "No one can serve _____ masters . . . You cannot serve God and wealth" (Matthew 6:24).

God wants you as His _____ and I hope you want Him as your Father. How does one become His child? By _____ the gospel and _____ it, _____ of your sins, _____ the name of Jesus Christ before others and be born again by being _____ for the forgiveness of your sins.