*Personally
Speaking . . .*
by
Mack Lyon

I am writing this on Monday morning after the senseless shooting of nine people in Tucson, Arizona. We were all saddened by the happenings there, and we express our sympathies to the families of those who were killed or wounded.

Immediately the cry was heard: "How could this happen in America?" My reply is: "Where else could it happen?" America is a land of free people. Others are not allowed the freedom to own and carry a gun. The Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution guarantees Americans that "right."

Those men who wrote that Second Amendment believed that strong faith in God is essential to the continuity of a free citizenry. However, the citizens of a free society are free to do as they please, as long as what they choose to do pleases God. When a society determines to condone murder, there is a storm brewing on the horizon. God very clearly says, "You shall not murder" (Exodus 20:13 NKJV). For those who do it anyway, He says, "Whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed" (Gen. 9:6).

Thomas Jefferson, our third president, still speaks to us pertinently: "God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are the gift of God? Indeed I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, that His justice cannot sleep forever."

The lately deceased Senator Robert Byrd of West Virginia cited that quote of Jefferson's as a forceful and explicit warning that "to remove God from this country will destroy it."

A "secular society?" Never! God describes such a one in Romans 1:18-32. Please read it. We love you.

The Challenge of Each Day

"We must work the works of Him who sent Me as long as it is day; night is coming when no one can work" (John 9:4).

Ben Franklin said, "Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for time is the stuff life is made of." For the child of God, each new year challenges us to do more, to do better, than we did last year. God desires that we grow in the grace and the knowledge of the Lord (2 Peter 3:18). God charges us, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 15:58).

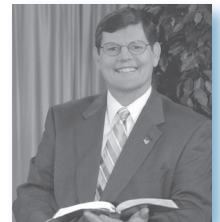

Those who love the Lord must fight the temptation to be complacent. Each new day challenges us to do our very best in our service to the Lord. It challenges us to have a better devotional life, to draw closer to the Lord, to draw closer to our families, to help those in need, and to reach out with the gospel to those who are lost.

Churches grow by sharing the gospel with their communities. Churches that only teach their children and fail to reach outside will find they cannot enlarge their numbers. Churches grow intentionally when they sow the seed in the soil of good and honest hearts (Luke 8:15). When we show love to the lost, pray the Lord will open the door for the Word, and proclaim the true gospel, God will give us the increase.

Recently eight souls in Sallisaw, Oklahoma, became members of the body of Christ by watching the SEARCH program and following along with the study sheets. Hearing the gospel, they opened their hearts to love the Lord and found the grace of God. Because brothers Jerry McMahan and Johnny Capps cared for their souls and saw the value of the SEARCH program, these eight souls came to the Lord. We thank God for their love for God and for souls. We were thankful we could provide a tool for them to reach those who are lost with the gospel.

We know the SEARCH program works to reach lost souls, if people will use it. We urge you to tell your friends about SEARCH.

The Lord be with you,
Phil Sanders

FINANCIAL FOCUS

How Will New Tax Rules Affect You?

Now that the Tax Relief, Unemployment Insurance Reauthorization, and Job Creation Act of 2010 is law, you'll want to familiarize yourself with how this new legislation affects you — both as a wage earner and an investor.

Consider these key parts of the new tax laws:

- Income tax rates remain the same. Under previous legislation, tax rates were scheduled to rise in 2011, but the new laws will keep all tax brackets the same.
- Payroll taxes reduced by two percent. Your share of the Social Security payroll tax will drop from 6.2 percent to 4.2 percent for 2011. Consequently, you should see more take-home pay. You may want to consider investing at least part of this savings in another retirement account, such as an IRA.

- Top capital gains and dividend tax rates stay at 15 percent. The question of what would happen to capital gains and dividend taxes has been of great interest to most investors. For the past several years, the highest capital gains and dividend tax rate has been 15 percent. However, this 15 percent rate was scheduled to expire at the end of 2010; after that, dividends were to be taxed at one's standard income tax rate, while long-term capital gains would be taxed at 20 percent for anyone above the 15 percent income tax bracket. But due to the new legislation, the highest tax rate for both capital gains and dividends will stay at 15 percent for at least 2011 and 2012.

The capital gains and dividend tax provisions can have significant effects on your investment decisions over the next two years. You now still have a strong incentive to follow a "buy-and-hold" investment strategy, under which you'd earn the favorable 15 percent rate on capital gains from selling an appreciated asset, such as a stock, that you've held at least one year. And the 15 percent rate on dividend taxes will continue to provide you with good reason to seek out those stocks that regularly pay dividends; besides offering an advantageous tax rate, dividends, when reinvested can help build your ownership stake in the dividend-paying investments. (Keep in mind, though, that companies are not obligated to pay dividends and can reduce or discontinue them at any time.)

- Estate tax exemption set at $5 million per person. Under previous tax laws, the estate tax was scheduled to be repealed entirely for 2010 only, and then return in 2011, with an exclusion amount of $1 million and a top tax rate of 55 percent. Under the new legislation, the exclusion amount for 2011 and 2012 is $5 million per person ($10 million for married couples), with a top tax rate of 35 percent. The new law also includes a "portability" provision which can provide increased flexibility in estate planning between married couples to attain full use of the $10 million exemption. You'll need to see your tax and legal advisors to determine what, if any, changes you'll want to make to your estate plans for the next couple of years as these laws will sunset at the end of 2012.

- Gift tax exemption set at $5 million per person. Under previous tax laws, the gift tax exemption for lifetime gifts was $1 million. The new legislation increases the lifetime gift tax exemption to $5 million per person. You should work with your tax and legal professionals to determine whether the new exemption amount provides opportunities for you to consider during the next two years.

As always, changes in tax laws can have a big impact on your financial future — so stay informed and take the steps you need to keep progressing toward your goals.

PROGRAMS

March 2011

Topics subject to change without notice

MARCH 6 - DOES JESUS CARE?

Life can quickly get harsh and hard to bear. It can leave us numb and wondering if Jesus cares. Does Jesus care about me and my heartaches? How can I know the Lord is paying attention to my struggles?

MARCH 13 – IS GOD ACTIVE TODAY?

Some folks think God is absent in our world today; others say God is dead. Is God active in the world today for good? How can we find God’s goodness and love?

MARCH 20 – WHY DO WE SUFFER?

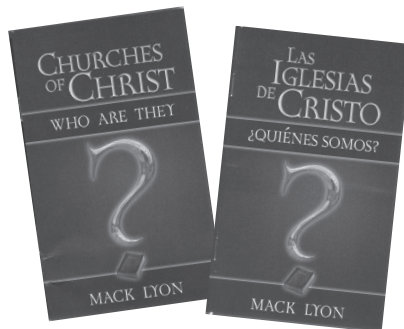

The world wonders why a loving, omnipotent God would allow us to suffer. For many this becomes a stumbling block to their faith, but it doesn’t have to be. A close look at Jesus helps us to see another side to suffering.

MARCH 27 – WHAT NOW?

How we react to the challenges of life will shape our character and our future. What can we do when our lives are interrupted with heartbreak or illness? How do we face calamity and an uncertain future?

SPOTLIGHT

IN SEARCH OF THE LORD’S WAY has distributed over 125,000 copies of the booklet titled “CHURCHES OF CHRIST WHO ARE THEY” written by Mack Lyon. And, it continues to be the most asked for booklet in the thirty-one year history of SEARCH. Did you know this booklet is available in Spanish? SEARCH has a good quantity of these available right now. Spanish is the second most spoken language in the world and these booklets will aid in evangelizing efforts as well as giving information to people about the church of Christ. Give our staff a call, email us, or send a letter to order these for the Spanish speaking people in your area. For orders up to five they are free, for larger orders SEARCH’s cost is $1.35 each which includes shipping.

On page two you have probably read the article by Candace Hobbs, with Edward Jones, regarding financial focus. Candace recently worked with SEARCH in developing annuity strategies to give seniors guaranteed monthly income while giving the ministry a stronger financial future. For more information you may call the SEARCH staff or you can call Candace Hobbs directly at 405-330-3930.

SEARCH currently mails about 1,450 audio cassette tapes to individuals each month. Cassette tapes are becoming increasingly difficult and expensive to purchase in large volumes. And, we are being told by our suppliers the cost for the blank cassettes will be going up throughout the year. So, SEARCH is asking you, as soon as possible, to allow us to stop sending cassettes but rather audio CDs? We are intending to end sending cassettes by midyear 2011.

From the Mailbag...

DURANT, OK “I have a friend that goes to a different church –not our Lord’s church. She says the preacher says in the Bible it was a sin to cremate. I have looked in my concordance and there is no such evidence. I may not know where and what to look for – not that I plan to be – but I would like to know where to find it if it’s there.” (ED. NOTE: Cremation is not preferable. However, sinfulness is not determined by what is most or least preferable. I find nothing in the Scriptures that approves it or disapproves cremation. Jesus was buried –and rose to live again. That is my plan. M.L.).

CROSSVILLE, TN “Dear brothers Mack and Phil. Thank you for blessing our lives by continuing to preach the truth. Many of our preachers have strayed back into the world to please people. Keep standing among the faithful.”

LUBBOCK, TX “It is always good to see you on TV. Also glad you have Phil to take your place. God is so good. Did you ever dream when you were a boy or even a young preacher that you would one day be speaking to millions of people on television? What a great blessing. Perhaps one day soon we can say ‘Lord, we have carried out Your mission.’ (Matt. 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-16).” (ED. NOTE: No, brother preacher, I never once had such a dream. You see, when I was a ‘boy or even a young preacher,’ there was no public television. The military may have had it ???, but not the public. But, Yes! God is so good. He has always given His church what it needed to do His will. I am deeply thankful and humbled that He let me be part of what He has grown into a world-wide ministry. Thanks for your encouraging support in word and in deed. --M.L.).

EAST LIVERPOOL, OH

“Enclosed find a check for the DVD’s for the program for October 2010. I watch and record the program every Sunday and copy and give away DVD’s to anyone who wants them. This is a wonderful program and I pray that it will last long after I am gone; it has done much good.”

DECATUR, AL “Thank you for all the wonderful work you do. I would like the printed copies of sermons on worship for the month of October. I appreciate these sermons which are so needed today.”

CLYDE, TX “I have been watching Mack Lyon since I found him on our TV; and that has been several years. He makes my day with his sermons. I have wanted to stop at the church but we always come through at the wrong time. Phil Sanders does a very good sermon also.”
