

"God's Love for Us"

If we could but grasp how greatly God loves us, it would change our lives. Hello, I'm Phil Sanders. And this is a Bible study, "In Search of the Lord's Way." No one loves you like the Lord Jesus. Stay with us and we'll explore God's love.

Welcome to In Search of the Lord's Way. From start to finish the Bible is God's supreme story of love and redemption. The more we read the Bible, the more we can understand the heart of God who created us and sustains our very existence. Though mankind can be hard to love, God has never faltered in wanting to bless those who seek His face and draw near. James 1:17 says that "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change." We're truly grateful that you've joined us today; and we want to be a part of your life each week.

God hasn't hidden His love for us; God has displayed it beyond dispute in the death of Jesus Christ upon the cross. The Bible says in Romans 5 verses 6 to 8, "For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." We were weak, ungodly, and sinners; but Christ was still willing to die for our sins, to wash us clean by His blood. Now such love is truly abundant and beyond comprehension.

Jesus bore the cross to forgive us of our sins and then to open a door for us to have a loving relationship with our Father in Heaven. The Lord loved us when we were weak and couldn't save ourselves. He helped us when we were ungodly and had little thought of Him. He died for us while we were sinners, who had offended Him. Christ loved our souls when we didn't deserve it, when we didn't understand it, or even appreciate it. Such amazing love!

The Edmond church will now worship in song, we'll read from Ephesians 3 verses 14 to 19, and we'll explore God's love for us.

Our reading today comes from Paul's letter to the Ephesians, chapter 3, verses 14 to 19. "For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God." My what a wonderful prayer. Let's pray together. Oh Father may each one listening today come to comprehend the great love that You have for them. And Father may we do Your will always on earth as it's done in heaven. In Jesus name, Amen!

The Old Testament uses a rich and amazing word to describe the love that God has for His people. The Bible says that God is abounding in this kind of love. Now some versions call it "steadfast love," some "lovingkindness," and some simply just "mercy."

Psalm 103 verses 8 to 14 says that "The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love towards those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him. For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust."

"Steadfast" love is the deepest and best love; it's the kind of true love that doesn't let go and doesn't fail. It's loyal, faithful, kind, and good. It's compassionate and merciful. This type of love is built upon a voluntary covenant, an everlasting commitment to those who are in His favor. Psalm 86 and verse 15 says, "But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." Because the God of Heaven is kind and good, He's willing to pardon and forgive our sins, if we remain faithful to Him.

When you consider all that Jesus gave up in bearing the cross to save us from sin, you cannot doubt His love. If anything, the magnificent love of Jesus was stubborn, unfailing, and utterly unselfish. Jesus didn't merely give up something; He sacrificed Himself completely. On the cross the innocent Lord Jesus sacrificed everything. He kept silent and did nothing, while men slandered Him, falsely accused Him, condemned Him, scourged Him, mocked Him, and crucified Him. 1 Peter 2:22 to 24 says that "He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he didn't revile in return; when he suffered, he didn't threaten, but He continued entrusting himself to him who judges (righteously or) justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree (it was personal), that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. For by his wounds you have been healed."

Now Jesus bore the punishment and death for our sins, and it's the punishment that we should have borne, He bore it personally in his own body. The Lord laid on Him the iniquity of us all (Isaiah 53 and verse 6). His suffering was physical and spiritual. 2 Corinthians 5 and verse 21 says, "For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God." Everything that Jesus did, He did out of an undeniable and pure love for us. Can you imagine what it must have been like for Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane to know that he would suffer scourging and crucifixion? According to Matthew 26 and verse 38 Jesus was greatly troubled and sorrowful, even to the point of death. Luke 22 and verse 44 says, "And being in agony He prayed more earnestly; and His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground."

They didn't simply bind Jesus, they nailed His hands and feet to a rugged cross and suspended Him in the most agonizing position. As they crucified Him, He prayed that the Father would forgive them. They mocked Him, insulted Him, and did their very worst to Him. And through all of His suffering, Jesus remained quiet; He uttered no threats. He didn't even revile them in return. He didn't call for the twelve legions of angels to wipe them out. No. The Lord's stubborn love lasted for six long hours on the cross. No matter how ugly men were to Jesus, Jesus' steadfast love held Him to the cross. He loved us to the end.

1 Timothy 2 verses 3 to 4 says, "This is good, and it's pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth." 2 Peter 3 verse 9 says, "The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance." God doesn't want anybody to be lost, but our heavenly Father grants us the freedom to choose Him or to choose sin. You can't make someone love you by force. No. God wants us to know Him, and to know the truth, and to love Him freely for Who He is. And this means we must be free to choose Him or reject Him. God loves everyone, but His blessing and grace are reserved for those who choose to love Him. We must freely and lovingly choose to believe in Him, to repent of our sins, and to follow Him.

Occasionally people speak of God's "unconditional love." Yes, I know Jesus said in Matthew 5 and verse 45 that God "makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust." God is certainly good to all! Jesus didn't bear the cross for us, because we were so good and deserved it. No, Jesus died for us because we were sinful and needed saving. And in that sense, He unconditionally took the initiative; but we cannot for that reason assume that to remain in God's love we can do whatever we wish. We can't assume God's love for us will continue to bless us if we turn from Him.

The Lord's steadfast love, His covenant love of promise, has conditions. The Lord Jesus said in John 14 verses 23 and 24, that "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me." God's promise, He promises His love and He promises His abiding presence to those who love Him and keep His words. Now a person who doesn't love God won't care about keeping God's words.

And it's a fantasy to think that we can sin all we wish and still count on the grace of God. It's fantasy to think that we can rebel against God and still be right with Him. It's fantasy to think that we can remake God in our own image and still please Him. It's fantasy to think that we can rewrite His commandments, ignore His holiness, corrupt His character, and forget His justice but still count on His love.

Hebrews 10 verses 26 to 31 says, "For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer, no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, 'Vengeance is mine; I will repay.' And again, 'The Lord will judge his people.' It's a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Oh friend, we must never take the love and grace of God for granted. It's too valuable to squander.

Now you might be thinking at this point, "Phil don't you remember what the Bible says, that "God is love." Yes, I know 1 John 4 and verse 8. But picking a passage out of the Bible and ignoring other verses that are just as inspired isn't accurately handling the word of God. We shouldn't understand 1 John 4 verse 8 that "God is love," without also consulting 1 John 1:5 to 7. Now these verses say: "This is the message which we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, then we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin."

As J. I. Packer said in his book, Knowing God, he said "the God who is love is first and foremost light, and sentimental ideas of his love as an indulgent, benevolent softness, divorced from moral standards and concerns, must therefore be ruled out from the start. God's love is holy love. The God whom Jesus made known is not a God who is indifferent to moral distinctions, but a God who loves righteously and righteousness and He hates iniquity, a God whose ideal for his children is that they should 'be perfect. . . as your heavenly Father is perfect' (Matthew 5 and verse 48). He will not take into his company any person, however orthodox in mind, who will not follow after holiness of life."

Hebrews 12 and verse 14 says, "Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord." Some might wonder if God loves us, why would He insist on our living holy lives? Some think that if God loved us, He wouldn't demand that we live by all those rules. But let's stop here and think. Is God trivial? Are His laws petty? No. God insists His people live holy lives so as to protect us and give us peace. We should consider the righteous way of life that Jesus commands as a precious gift, not as a burden or something petty or trivial. God isn't being mean when He asks us to treat others kindly or to refrain from evil. Everyone benefits when we live good lives. And God's goodness is one of the ways that He shows His love.

When we sin against God by breaking His commandments, He disciplines us with love. Godly discipline is not abuse; it's training given for our good. Proverbs 3 verses 11 to 12 says, "My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the LORD reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights." The book of Hebrews explains in Hebrews 12 verses 10 and 11, that God "disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it." God disciplines our sins that we may share in His holiness and live with Him. He acts for the long-term good not simply for the moment.

Our society despises discipline, thinking love leaves people alone to do anything they want. And they believe that speaking against any behavior is mean-spirited and judgmental. But God speaks against sin out of love not meanness. Remaining silent about sinful behaviors that ruin lives is far more cruel than simply warning someone. God speaks out against sin because He cares. And He wants to bless us.

Well why is this important? Because the Lord created you for more than what takes place in this life. God loves you and is interested in your life here on earth and in the hereafter. He wants you to live with Him forever in heaven. And along with Paul we pray "that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God." Let's pray together. Father, help us to know Your love and to love You so much that we will be willing to do Your will. Oh, may Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. In Jesus name, Amen!

The Lord Jesus touched lives throughout His ministry. He healed the sick, the lepers, the blind, and the deaf. He raised the dead, walked on water, stilled the storm, and fed the multitudes. When men did their worst to Him, He prayed, "Father, forgive them for they not know what they do." Peter described Jesus in Acts 10 verse 38 as One who "went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." The Lord Jesus is still doing good in the lives of men and women. He leads them out of bondage to sin to become children of God. He leads them out of distress into hope, out of doubt into faith, and out of apathy into love.

We need the love of God in our lives every day! The more we grasp how much He loves us, the more we'll determine to demonstrate that same kind of lasting, committed love. Knowing the love of God will make us better fathers and husbands, better mothers and wives, better citizens, better children, and better friends. God's love teaches us patience and kindness, compassion and forgiveness, and forbearance and loyalty. Love motivates us to be holy and faithful. It teaches us how to love the truth and to live with integrity and virtue. We need God's love to become better people.

The love of God should make you want to become a better Christian. When you become a Christian by placing your trust in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, when you are turning away from sin, when you're confessing Christ before others, and when you're baptized into Christ, you become a Christian. When you're baptized, the Lord washes away your sins, He adds you to His family the church. And nothing you will do today is more important than becoming a Christian, and professing Your love for God. Won't you become one today?

Well we hope that we've stirred your heart to act. If you want a free printed copy or CD of this message, mail your request to In Search of the Lord's Way, P.O. Box 371, Edmond, OK 73083 or send an e-mail to searchtv@searchtv.org.

Or you can call the Search office, it's toll-free at 1-800-321-8633. Now our programs appear on our website at www.searchtv.org. And we offer Bible Correspondence courses to help you learn more about God's will. And if you want one, just let us know. We also offer free study sheets that go along with our programs. You can download them free before each program at our website or you can call and request them. Now if you get a hold of us we won't ask you for money or put you on a list.

But we do ask that you please get involved with a church of Christ in your area. They're the reason that we don't ask for money. If you're looking for a church home, a Biblical church home, we'll be happy to help you find one. Churches of Christ love and they want guests, to come and worship with them, and if you go and worship there, you'll be glad that you did. Well we'll be back next week, Lord willing. So we ask that you keep searching God's Word with us and tell a friend about this program, let them know that you're watching and encourage them to watch too. And as always we say, God bless you and we love you from all of us at In Search of the Lord's Way.
